

STRINGILICIOUS BRUNCH

Orchestra London's Serenade Brunch series kicks off November 7, 2010, with Stringilicious Brunch at the Best Western Lamplighter Inn. Our concert features the Classique String Quartet of Regina Audet and Kelly Eydt on violin, Karen Kjeldson on viola, and Christine Newland on cello.

Fine food and fine music have always gone well together. The brunch, from 12 noon to 1 pm, features a yummy buffet of breakfast favourites including hot and cold entrees, baked goods, salads and desserts.

The concert, from 1 pm to 2 pm, will follow the feast with easy listening selections from Bach and Handel, to Cole Porter and Scott Joplin. Come enjoy a delectable assortment of string bonbons with a leisurely Sunday brunch!

Christine Newland, a founding member of the Classique String Quartet, has performed solo for CBC and BBC radio and television, and the West Deutches Rundfunk. She spent two years in Germany, in the Master Class of Antonio Janigro, and toured Europe, and Canada, in the Dusseldorf String Quartet, as well as performed a six week solo tour in Japan sponsored by the Hellas Cultural Organization.

In 2000, Ms. Newland performed, organized and promoted a special fund-raising concert for Orchestra London, held at Centennial Hall. She was loaned the six million dollar "Bonjour" Stradivari cello to perform an all solo cello tribute to her friend Jacqueline Du Pre.

Ms. Newland is currently principal cellist for Orchestra London, with whom she has performed solo works by Haydn, Schumann, Boccherini, Saint-Saens, Elgar, Giron, Shostakovich, Tchaikovsky, Vivaldi, Dvorak, Faure, and Hindemith and premiered works written for her by Giron, Shoushounian and Whitehead. Ms. Newland plays on a Giovanni Francesco Celoniato cello made in 1730.
